TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

As a residential construction company with a reputation we rely on, engaging dedicated and proven contractors to carry out our works to the standard expected by our clients is crucial to our success.

A number of years ago, we were lucky to find Aquilo Air after a period of unreliable and unpredictable air-conditioning contractors. The air-conditioning is such an important element to the residential home outcome and can so easily ruin the result if not designed and executed properly. With Aquilo Air we have complete peace of mind about this.

Communication and planning is always clear and easy with Glen. His flexibility, creative thinking and his team's dedication to the outcome for the client has been critical to the success of many of our projects.

We now use Aquilo Air exclusively for air-conditioning.

Yours faithfully,

Jeremy Hampshire,
DIRECTOR
